Why is Corporate Sport Incentives Different?

Experience. Creating incentive programs in itself may not be difficult, but designing them to work towards your company's specific goals often requires unique insight and creative thought. Finding ways to motivate individuals, clients and customers is one of our strengths.

Relationships. The ultimate goal of any program is not just to generate a response, but to create a lasting relationship that will continue to produce returns well into the future. Using the correct resources in the appropriate circumstances is an important step to forging those relationships that will make your business prosper. With more than thirty years worth of success building relationships, we will help your company create connections to last a lifetime.

Results. Many call good results the perfect end to any successful incentive. We consider it the perfect beginning. Recognizing that you've achieved your goal is the first step in devising new, more intrepid goals, aimed at solidifying your business' industry niche. We understand not only how important good results are to a company, but we also know the process shouldn't stop there.

Bahamian Fly-Fishing

For half a century, time has stood still, just as it does when a bonefish comes up on a flat and chases your fly. It stops in a way that's similar to your first drift over a bottomless, blue hole and when you watch a hooked tuna tear across a slick surface. Fishing has always been an integral part of Bahamian life, and it is the foundation on which the venerable Deep Water Cay was created. Formula One Grand Prix Racing - various race dates and International locations

A Formula One race or Grand Prix takes place over three days (usually Friday to Sunday), with a series of practice and qualifying sessions prior to a race on Sunday. Current regulations provide for a practice session and a qualifying session on Saturday, and the actual Grand Prix race on Sunday.

Qualifying takes place on Saturday afternoon in a three-stage "knockout" period system. The first qualifying period includes all twenty-four cars on the circuit. At the end of twenty minutes, the seven slowest drivers are eliminated and put in positions eighteen to twenty-four on the grid. After a short break, the second period begins with the remaining seventeen cars. At the end of the fifteen minute period, the seven slowest drivers are once again eliminated, filling grid positions eleven to seventeen. Finally, the third qualifying period features the ten fastest drivers from the second period. The drivers have ten minutes to set a qualifying time, which will determine the race's top ten start positions. The race itself is held on Sunday afternoon and cannot exceed two hours in length; if the race has not finished by then the race will be ended at the end of that lap.

The Indianapolis 500 - May 26, 2013 Indianapolis, Indiana
May 25, 2014 Indianapolis, Indiana

The first (and oldest) automobile race in America, the Indianapolis 500 has run every non-World War year since 1911, and has established itself as a piece of American history. From the moment the Indianapolis Motor Speedway opened for business on August 19, 1909, the 2.5-mile oval in America's heartland has been the testing surface for most of today's automobile manufacturers. In fact, the first 500-mile race at Indianapolis Motor Speedway in 1911 (called "International Sweepstakes") saw the first automobile ever to make use of the rearview mirror. Since then, the Indy 500 has tested everything from improved gas-tanks through safety belts, and has contributed to both war and peace-time military advancement. Without its presence, America would be a different country, absent amazing discovery, and memorable entertainment, alike.

The Ryder Cup Golf Tournament - Sept. 27-Oct. 1, 2012 Medinah, Illinois
Sept. 26 - 28, 2014 Gleneagles, Scotland

The Ryder Cup (officially the Ryder Cup Matches) is a biennial golf competition between teams from Europe and the United States. The competition is jointly administered by the PGA of America and the PGA European Tour with the venue alternating between courses in the United States and Europe. With the exception of Spain in 1997 and Ireland in 2006, all European tournaments have been held in the UK. The Ryder Cup is also the name of the trophy, after the person who donated it, Samuel Ryder. The Ryder Cup, and its counterpart the Presidents Cup, are unique in the world of golf, and possibly professional sports. Despite being high-profile events which bring in tens of millions of dollars in TV and sponsorship, the players receive no prize money and compete purely for the victory.

The World Series - Oct. TBD, 2012 TBD
Oct. TBD, 2013 TBD

Terms and Conditions of Redemption

All JustRewards™ Sports and Vacation Travel awards are non-refundable and must be redeemed before the expiration date listed on the award certificate; normally, this is one year from the date of award issue. Actual travel may take place up to a year thereafter.

When choosing an event, please keep in mind that you must allow at least 30 days for fulfillment processing. Only events taking place 30 or more days from your date of redemption will be available.

You will receive a confirmation that your award redemption request has been received within 48 hours of submission. Should any problems arise with your redemption request, you will be notified at that time.

All events available for redemption are based on both accommodation and event ticket availability. It is important to note that availability can be exhausted from time to time. While we will make every effort to fill your award package with your first redemption choice, there are rare instances where this is simply impossible. Should this occur, you will be promptly contacted by one of our Redemption Service Representatives and given the opportunity to redeem your award for a different event. Please do not make plane or other travel arrangements until your redemption has been confirmed by a JustRewards™ Redemption Service Representative.

Charges will apply for additional nights, tickets, and services such as golf or spa. All additions are non-refundable and are subject to availability.

Your tickets and accommodation information will arrive within one week of the event, unless otherwise advised, and will be sent to the address of record via trackable shipping. A signature may be required for delivery of this package.

All JustRewards™ Sports and vacation travel awards are individual awards and are not valid for group travel. We ask that you redeem no more than two awards for an individual event or vacation.

The JustRewards™ Redemption Service Center at 1-866-904-5577 is open Monday through Friday 9AM - 6PM and Saturday 10AM - 4PM Eastern Standard Time, and can help you with questions ranging from the validity of your award through the status of your order. The Redemption Service Center can also assist in finding an event to attend, should you have trouble deciding what to redeem your award for.

Cruise Awards

Travelers are responsible for transportation to and from the port of departure. Additionally, all personal incidental charges-- such as telephone calls, soft drinks and alcoholic beverages, medications, doctor visits, tips and gratuities, services rendered, parking and optional excursions-- are also the responsibility of the traveler/s.

A signature may be required for delivery of this package. This documentation is required for cruise embarkation, so please make sure you receive it before leaving for your cruise.

A passport is required for travel. Any guest traveling without proper documentation will not be allowed to board the vessel, and no refund of the cruise fare will be issued. Additional restrictions may apply to your specific vessel, cruise, and/or ports of call.
